Welcome

to Ordsall Hall, Salford's most historic wedding venue and a hidden gem a stone's throw from Salford Quays and Manchester city centre. We are licensed to host civil ceremonies on Fridays and Saturdays throughout the year for up to 88 guests.

" We honestly can't thank you enough for making our wedding day so wonderful. It was better than we ever could have imagined, Ordsall looked beautiful and everyone of our guests commented on how much they loved the venue and the whole day."

Enjoy the stunning setting of this Grade 1 listed building and the intimacy of its surroundings exclusively for the duration of your stay. Ceremonies take place in the 500 year old Great Hall providing the perfect backdrop for unique photographs.

We understand and appreciate that your wedding day is the most important day of your lives. Our dedicated wedding manager works with each couple to discuss individual requirements tailor making plans to suit.

" We just wanted to say thank you to you and everyone at Ordsall for the most amazing wedding day. We had such a perfect day. We couldn't have wished for a better day."

We offer tailor-made packages to suit every couple, from drinks receptions with canapes to afternoon tea. For those looking for something more substantial, a hog roast can be served within the beautiful gardens.

"Just wanted to send an email to say thanks for all your help. We can't put into words how happy we were on the day. The venue was perfect and we couldn't have asked for a better person to guide us through the day. The hall looked beautiful and it was everything we imagined and more, truly the perfect wedding day for us."

Ordsall Hall hosts both weddings and civil ceremonies and can work with you to create your kind of day, just how you want it.

"Just wanted to say thank you for hosting the best day ever. We were made up with how the day went. Ordsall hall looked beautiful, we received so many compliments on it. We absolutely loved it!"
